Death.

Elizabeth Amick died at Henry Taylor's, January 6, 1902, at the supposed age of 87 years. She was a member of St. Peter's (Piney Woods) church for many years. In the absence of her pastor funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. K. Efrd, of Little Mountain, S. C. She leaves one sister and other relatives and friends.

Capt. Jackson Will Have to Hunker.

Unless the contractor pushes the macadam work on Main street he will lose a tidy bit of money, for he is under contract to complete the work or to forfeit $3 per day for the time exceeding 60 days. As he has been at work more than sixty days already, the city is saving money by the slow progress he is making.—Sumter Item, 20th.

"Something to Talk About."

Conglomerations of trashy inconsistencies have been foisted upon the public from time to time by unscrupulous managers, thus galling the people. The management of "A Breezy Time" have carefully eliminated all threadbare stuff from the modern "Breezy Time" and with the new songs, dances and funny situations it will compare with the finest on the road. Saturday night at the opera house.

Hard to Leave Newberry.

In Newberry last Wednesday we met Bro. Hood and his good wife, Bro. Hood and a number of his people had come to town to put Mrs. Hood and the children on the train for Clinton. He was to remain and preach on Sabbath at King's Creek and Head Springs and then go up to Clinton, from there they go to North Carolina and then to Tennessee. Bro. Hood said he had no idea of how hard it would be to tear away from the good people of Newberry until the time came.—A. R. Presbyterian, 22nd.

Dr. Hallman and His Work.

Rev. Dr. S. T. Hallman, who is now acting State missionary for the South Carolina Lutheran Synod has been at home a few days this week with his family. He will return today to Greenwood where he is now working up interest in a Lutheran mission at that thriving little city. The doctor is very much encouraged with the prospects of success at Greenwood, and says that the people of that place are endeavoring themselves very much to him. He is pleased with Greenwood and its people.

A Cure for Lumbago.

W. C. Williamson, of Amburst, Va., says: "For more than a year I suffered from lumbago. I finally tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm and it gave me entire relief, which all other remedies had failed to do." Sold by W. E. Pelham.

A Death at Pomaria.

Mrs. T. N. Kibler, formerly of this city, died at her home near Pomaria on Saturday last. Her two children in Columbia, Mr. R. Y. Kibler of the South Carolina college and Mrs. E. H. Dent, attended the funeral. Mrs. Kibler's death was preceded by a long illness. The burial was at St. Paul's cemetery, the Rev. Mr. Silgh conducting the funeral services. Mrs. Kibler was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Nail of Columbia, and was a niece of Mrs. Pink Lark, who lives near the city in Lexington County.—The State, 23d.

He Kept His Log.

Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation. "But," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and I 2 boxes of Bucklen's Ointment and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sore, and all blood disorders Electric Bitters is no rival on earth. Try them. All druggists will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

Death of a Little Girl.

Carrie Lou, child of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cook, died January 5th, 1902, of typhoid fever. Bright and loving in all her ways, she was the family pet and they miss her. But comfort yourselves with the thought that God's ways are not our ways.

"Suffer little children to come to me and forbid them not, for such is the Kingdom of Heaven." There is no death; it is but a sleep. Doubtless her soul is with Christ. Wait on the Lord and he shall comfort the heart. She was a child of the covenant, and faith assures us that it will well with the child. W. W. McM

Thousands Sent Into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and who are coughed with are urged to go to other climate. But this is costly and is not always sure. A man was afraid of thunder and crawled into a hollow log as a place of safety, says a truthful exchange. The thunder roared and the rain poured down in torrents. The log began to swell and the poor fellow was wedged in. Past sins began passing before him. Suddenly he remembered he had not paid his subscription to his county paper and then he felt so small that he was able to back right out.

Will not Meet at Prosperity.

As the announcement has been made that there would be a meeting of the County Teachers Association held at Prosperity on Saturday, we have been requested to state that the County Board of Education has decided that owing to the lateness in the school year it is not now practicable to hold any meetings of the teachers at Prosperity. This of course means that there will be no meeting there Saturday. The meetings at Newberry will be continued as heretofore.

Food Changed to Poison.

GOT THE DROP ON HIM.

A Negro Waylaid the Police but Got the Worse of the Transaction—The Negro Had Been Charged With Stealing Potatoes.

Last Saturday night some one broke into the potato house at Mrs. Werber's and stole some potatoes.

Policeman H. H. Franklin was put on the case; and Sunday he tracked the thief to where the potatoes had been hidden—or about where they had been put, and was on the lookout for the thief.

In the mean time, Mr. Franklin had John Brooks, colored, arrested on the charge. Tuesday he was given a preliminary trial before Magistrate Chappell, who bound him over on a charge of house breaking and larceny.

Brooks was represented at the preliminary by O. L. Schumpert, Esq., who claimed that sufficient proof had not been produced on which to bind over Brooks—that the State had not proven that the house had been broken into or that potatoes had been stolen.

Magistrate Chappell ruled that the point raised by Attorney Schumpert was a good one and that the statement was one of facts, yet, to his own mind he had sufficient proof of the negro's guilt to bind him over, and would do so on his own recognizance until he could see Mrs. Werber and get her sworn statement that the house had been broken into and potatoes stolen therefrom.

Wednesday night Mr. Franklin, with Mr. H. V. Vaughan, who was a special police, went to where they had located the potatoes, which was in the Jones' woods beyond Mr. J. A. Burton's residence, and near where Brooks lives. They found the potatoes, about a bushel and a peck, and put them on a negro's back for him to bring to town.

Just as Mr. Franklin jumped the fence near where the potatoes were found, he heard a noise and looked around was faced by Brooks who had raised in his left hand a scythe blade about two feet long. Brooks accosted him saying: "Who are you?" As he said that Mr. Franklin fired a shot from his pistol. The ball struck Brooks in the left arm. Brooks then stepped off and was shot in the thigh twice by Mr. Vaughan. The police, after Brooks had been wounded three times had to threaten to kill to get him to give up the blade and surrender.

At this writing Brooks is still in the guard house. The wounds are flesh wounds and neither will prove serious.

That Hacking Cough.

is a source of annoyance to yourself and others, as well as of distress. By taking a teaspoonful of Pinkettes in half a glass of warm water or milk every hour or two, you will be surprised to find how quickly the cough will disappear. Insist upon getting the genuine. Sold in two sizes. Price 25c and 50c. Avoid substitutes, there is but one Pain-Killer, Perry Davis.

A MAD DOG.

A Negro Girl Bitten—Several Dogs Killed Because They Had Been Bitten. The Mad Dog Finally Killed.

Quite a commotion was caused here yesterday morning when it became known that there was a mad dog in town.

The dog was a stray one and was first observed in "Gravel Town," where it bit a little colored girl. From there it was chased up town, biting several dogs on its rounds. A large crowd gathered and followed trying to kill it, several shots being fired at it on the streets, but they all missed their aim. The dog was finally killed in the eastern part of the town by some one of the crowd.

All the dogs that was known to have been bitten by the mad dog have been killed.

Mr. Henry Caldwell's large dog was bitten and had to be killed.

Fell Through a Bridge.

Yesterday Mr. A. C. Workman had a wagon loaded with cotton seed and four good mules to fall through a bridge across Bush River in Laurens County. One side of the bridge gave way and the whole team fell in. One mule was badly hurt and all the cotton seed was lost.

"Some time ago my daughter caught a severe cold. She complained of pains in her chest and had a bad cough. I gave her Chamberlain's Cough Remedy according to directions and in two days she was well and able to go to school. I have used this remedy in my family for the past seven years and have never known it to fail," says James Pendergast, merchant, Annato Bay, Jamaica, West India Islands. The pains in the chest indicated an approaching attack of pneumonia, which in this instance was undoubtedly ward off by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It counteracts any tendency of a cold toward pneumonia. Sold by W. E. Pelham.

Prof. Powell of Newberry College has been prospecting in the neighborhood of the Gullbreath gold mine and it is reported that he has struck a rich find on Mr. Butler Mitchell's place. We hope that the report is true and that our friend will some day be a gold dust farmer.—Saluda Sentinel, 22nd.

A Good Recommendation.

"I have noticed that the sale on Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets is almost invariably to those who have once used them," says Mr. J. H. Weber, a prominent druggist of Cascade, Iowa. "What better recommendation could any medicine have than for people to call for it when again in need of such a remedy? Try them when you feel dull after eating, when you have a bad taste in your mouth, feel bilious, have no appetite or when troubled with constipation, and you are certain to be delighted with the prompt relief which they afford.
